INTRODUCTION

It is our vision that Vermont will become known as the most inclusive state in our nation for all people, regardless of how they identify.

With that vision in mind, a small group of Vermont citizens organized in January of 2021 to develop strategies to assist the state, cities, and towns in the planning, adoption, and implementation of a Declaration of Inclusion.

Bob Harnish, Pittsford

Al Wakefield, Mendon

Norman Cohen, Rutland City

The following information is intended for use by cities and towns in Vermont for taking steps toward implementation of your Declaration of Inclusion.

QUICK & EASY

Small steps to inform your residents of the wording of the DOI and the reasons behind adopting it:

- Add the Declaration to the town website or hang a framed copy in the Town Clerks office and include reasons why the Select Board believes this is an important step forward for the town.
- Print the Declaration in the Town Newsletter along with the reasons for adopting. Perhaps this is the first of a series of articles.
- Include in the Towns Annual Report along with a report of the broader role that Inclusion, Diversity and equity are playing throughout the State of Vermont and the far-reaching implications of the 2020 Census which show that Vermont has a dwindling and aging population.

IN-DEPTH IMPLEMENTATION

Steps requiring more thought and time:

- Form a Diversity Equity and Inclusion Committee, perhaps including a high school student, with a mandate to guide the town in its effort to become more diverse and inclusive and to report back to the Select Board. An important early job of the committee will be to review the town's official policies, programs, ordinances and procedures to be sure they are free of implicit or institutional bias.
- Review economic development, recruitment and employment policies to ensure they are welcoming, supportive and reaffirming of commitment to inclusion.
- Arrange for “implicit bias” training for city or town staff.
- Brainstorm with other adopting towns for creative ways to reach out to marginalized groups or individuals and new arrivals to give them a sense of belonging and value within the community.
- Task the committee with researching, gathering and overseeing the most effective ideas for creating a more welcoming community and to issue periodic reports to the Select Board and the town.
- Assess current work environment for town employees; do they feel safe, welcome and appreciated? Update policies to clarify how workers can have grievances heard and reviewed in a timely, fair and comfortable manner.
- Urge local schools, non-profits, corporations, etc. to adopt a statement of inclusion and offer bias training.

ON - GOING IMPLEMENTATION

Steps engaging partners now and in the future:

- Work with school administration to bring inclusion and diversity into the classroom in art, poetry, drama, debate club, etc.
- Work with faith leaders in the community to guide their congregations to embrace diversity as the human and humane way to treat our fellow citizens of this planet.
- Engage the town's library director to arrange a speakers series, discussion groups, reading groups, film series etc. and include students in these programs.
- Create a "concierge service" to assist new people in town or those considering a move to the town, with housing options, and the many other questions that a new arrival might have.
